INTRODUCTION

The Kingdom of Cambodia is a liberal democratic, multi-party and separation of three powers, Legislative, Executive and Judiciary.

The Senate, the Supreme National Institution with legislative power, was established on 25 March 1999. It has contributed in strengthening and building peace, political stability, national reconciliation, national development and other grounds for integrating Cambodia into the region and world in the globalization era.

The Senate had actively participated in respond to the present and long terms requirements of the nation, that the Royal Government of Cambodia has been doing its reform in all sectors such as public, social and economic management leading to a progress in line with the way of development with transparency, justice and accountability. Quality and effectiveness of state laws, and the representation of the entire interests of the nation and Commune/Sangkat Council throughout the country are the main priority that the Senate shall direct and carefully review its genuine activities, particularly the three major functions: representation, legislation and oversight.

Moreover, the Senate has contributed to be a small scale to commend, direct and strengthen public management toward the rule of law and good governance. The role played as facilitator between the National Assembly and Royal Government of Cambodia in aligned with a goal to ensure check and balance of state power and proceed in a better way in protection of fundamental of the Constitution, principles of democracy and confirm every citizen to respect human rights and freedoms in order for making social atmosphere in harmony and on the way of sustainable development of the nation.

Achievements of the Senate in the Second Legislature (2006-2012) reflects extra endeavors of the Senate, to perform its three functions with high quality and efficiency, represents the interest of Commune/Sangkat and the entire public. The Second Legislature achievements of the Senate will summarize the outcomes were accomplished by the First Legislature to overcome small and big challenges; and the accomplishment of the Secretariat General of the Senate.

BACKGROUND

The Senate of the Kingdom of Cambodia was established after the supreme meeting between the Leaders of two major political parties that took place at the Royal Palace on 12-13 November 1998 under the supreme chairmanship of His Majesty Norodom Sihanouk, King of Cambodia, in an attempt to end political deadlock, promote national reconciliation and strengthen political stability of the country.

The establishment of the Senate is a major event in the history of Cambodia that shows the new spectrum for the future of Cambodia with political stability and subsequent high commitments in developing rules of law as same as other developed nations in the world. In accordance to the amendment of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Cambodia, the First Legislature of Senate convened its initial session on 25 March 1999. In this legislature, the Senators, were appointed by His Majesty the King, upon the request of the President of the Senate and National Assembly, from the political parties having seats in the National Assembly. The Senate in its First Legislature had 61 members, there were 31 members from the Cambodian People's Party (CPP), 21 from FUNCINPEC Party, 7 from Samrainsy Party, and 2 representatives of His Majesty the King. The first term of the Senate was 5 years and renewed two terms, for each term is a year since 1999 until 2006 which is the period of operation of the First Legislature of the Senate.

The Second Legislature of the Senate was created by non-universal election via confidential election on 22 January 2006, with the voters consisted of incumbent Members of the National Assembly and Members of all Commune/Sangkat Councils from the 8 regions throughout the Kingdom of Cambodia. The Senate of this legislature also had 61 Members out of 57 which were elected, 45 Members from CPP, 10 from FUNCINPEC Party and 2 from SRP. Besides, 2 Members were nominated by the National Assembly on comparative majority votes and the other 2 were appointed by His Majesty the King. The Senate convened its initial session of the Second Legislature on 20 March 2006. The term of the Second Legislature of the Senate was 6-year term.

I-Achievements of the Senate in the First Legislature (1999-2006)

In the First Legislature, the Senate of the Kingdom of Cambodia accomplished remarkable achievements and actively engaged in making various existing state laws and basic foundation as its potentiality for strengthening its own statute and identity as one of the supreme institutions responsible for the people and the nation.

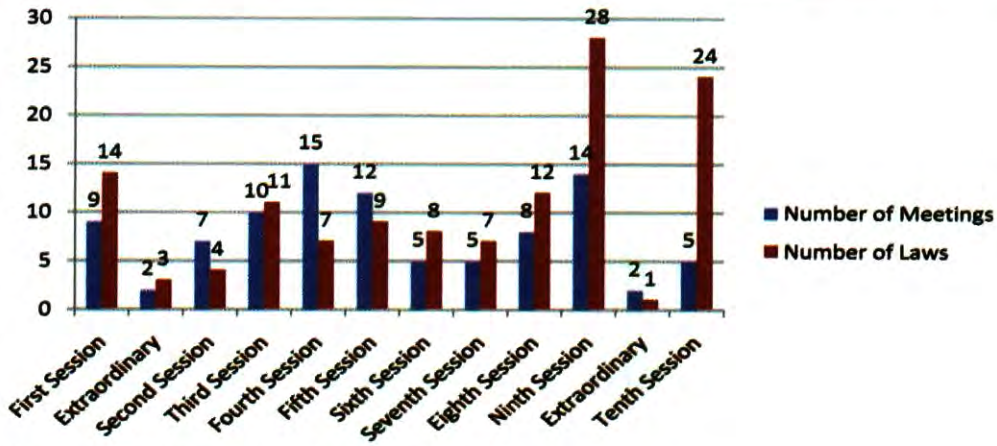

In the history of the Senate, Senators of the First Legislature were the first pioneers in paving the way from which the Senate built its strong base. In addition, full assistance and support from staff of the Secretariat General and good cooperation from various institutions, national and international organizations and development partners also made possible for the Senate to realize noteworthy success.

1-Legislation Function

The Senate reviewed and commended on 128 out of the 137 draft laws forwarded to the Senate by the National Assembly. Among these 128 draft laws, there were 2 draft laws that, on the one hand, the Senate gave recommendations for the National Assembly to amend, and on the other hand, one draft law was rejected by the Senate not to consider.

1-1-Sessions of the Senate

The First Legislature of the Senate convened 10 times of its sessions consisted of 94 plenary sessions and 2 extraordinary sessions to review and recommend 128 draft laws.

1-2-Activities of the Standing Committee

The Standing Committee convened 96 meetings to set agenda of the sessions, select secretary for each session, and to review and approve the internal affairs of the Senate, such as the ratification of Resolution on Roles, Duties and Competence of the 9 Specialized Commissions, Annual Budget Plan, Resolution on the Establishment of Bilateral and Multilateral Friendship Groups between the Cambodian Senate and Parliaments of other countries, Working Group in charge of the Inter-Parliamentary Union (IPU) and ASEAN Inter-Parliamentary Organization (AIPO) etc.

1-3-Activities of Leaders

The top 3 Leaders of the Senate chaired 96 meetings of the Standing Committee, led 96 sessions and assigned as Acting Head of State for 14 times.

1-4-Activities of the Nine Specialized Commissions

In this First Legislature, all nine Specialized Commissions of the Senate reviewed and revised 128 draft laws, conducted 3,637 visits to constituencies and localities in order to know the situation and concerns of people and forwarded 1,880 complaints to competent institutions.

1-5-Ad hoc Commissions

The Senate formed 3 ad hoc Commissions in charge of:

1-Preparing proposed Internal Regulation of the Senate
2-Preparing proposed amendment of Internal Regulations of the Senate
3-Reviewing and study on the proposed Conferment of Decoration to Senators at the end of the First Legislature

1-6-Activities of Senators

Senators actively engaged in reviewing and giving recommendations on draft laws and participated in solving various problems in order for alleviating poverty of the people through engaging in social affairs and local infrastructure development. Their actions contributed substantially to people and national interest, building of rules of law and national development.

2-Public Relations and International Cooperation Affairs

2-1-Public Relation Affairs

The Senate considers public relations as one of its key work. Public Relations serve as a bridge connecting the Senate with the public.

In this First Legislature, the Senate employed various forms of outreach to the people such as:

- Direct visit to people at constituencies, exchange of views and consultation with civil society organizations, all level of authorities, through meetings, seminars and other public forums
- Providing consultation access to public on legal issues and other complaints
- Allowing the public and students to visit the Senate in order to understand more clearly about the Senate and to do research study at the Library
- Broadcast through national media system such as television, radio, monthly bulletin or website of the Senate about different activities of the Senate or important laws.etc.

2-2-International Cooperation

The Senate strengthened and broadened international cooperation with parliaments of friendly countries through forming of parliamentary friendship group and becoming a member of IPU, AIPA or APF, etc., and partner with international development partners such as UNDP, KAF, CIDA, Cambodia Canada Legislative Support Project (CCLSP), Asia Foundation and other key partners, particularly the Government of People's Republic of China, Japan, Vietnam, France, Canada and Australia.

2-3-Outcomes of International Cooperation

The Senate received various support assistance from government and parliament of friendly countries for rebuilding of its infrastructure and institutional development with a total amount of 4,032,662 US dollars. Donor Countries:

- People's Republic of China	3,079,494 USD
- Japan	853,168 USD
- Socialist Republic of Vietnam	55,000 USD
- Republic of France	25,000 USD
- Brunei Darussalam	20,000 USD
- Republic of Korea	One Vehicle and 5 Document Boards
- Republic of Indonesia	One set of furniture for Red Building

Exchange of Senior Delegation of the Senate:

The Senate sent groups of delegation abroad to conduct official and study visits in order to exchange experiences on parliamentary works, attend meetings, conferences and seminars with total of 82 delegations. It also welcomed incoming delegation 245 times. In particular, there were also exchanges of high delegations of the Senate in order to strengthen more closely solidarity, friendship and cooperation with different parliamentary institutions around the world.

Most notably, during its first legislature, the Senate welcomed senior parliamentary delegations from many friendly countries including China, France, Belgium, Canada and Australia.

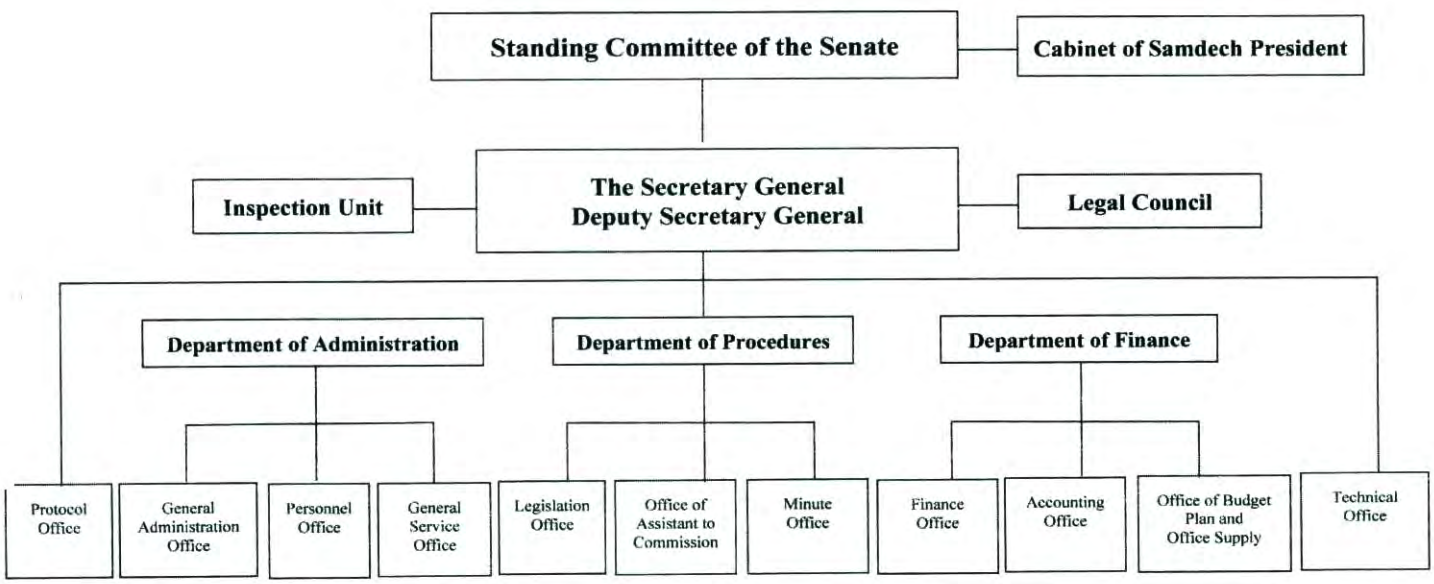

3-Achievements of the Secretariat General of the Senate (1999-2006)

3-1-Conception

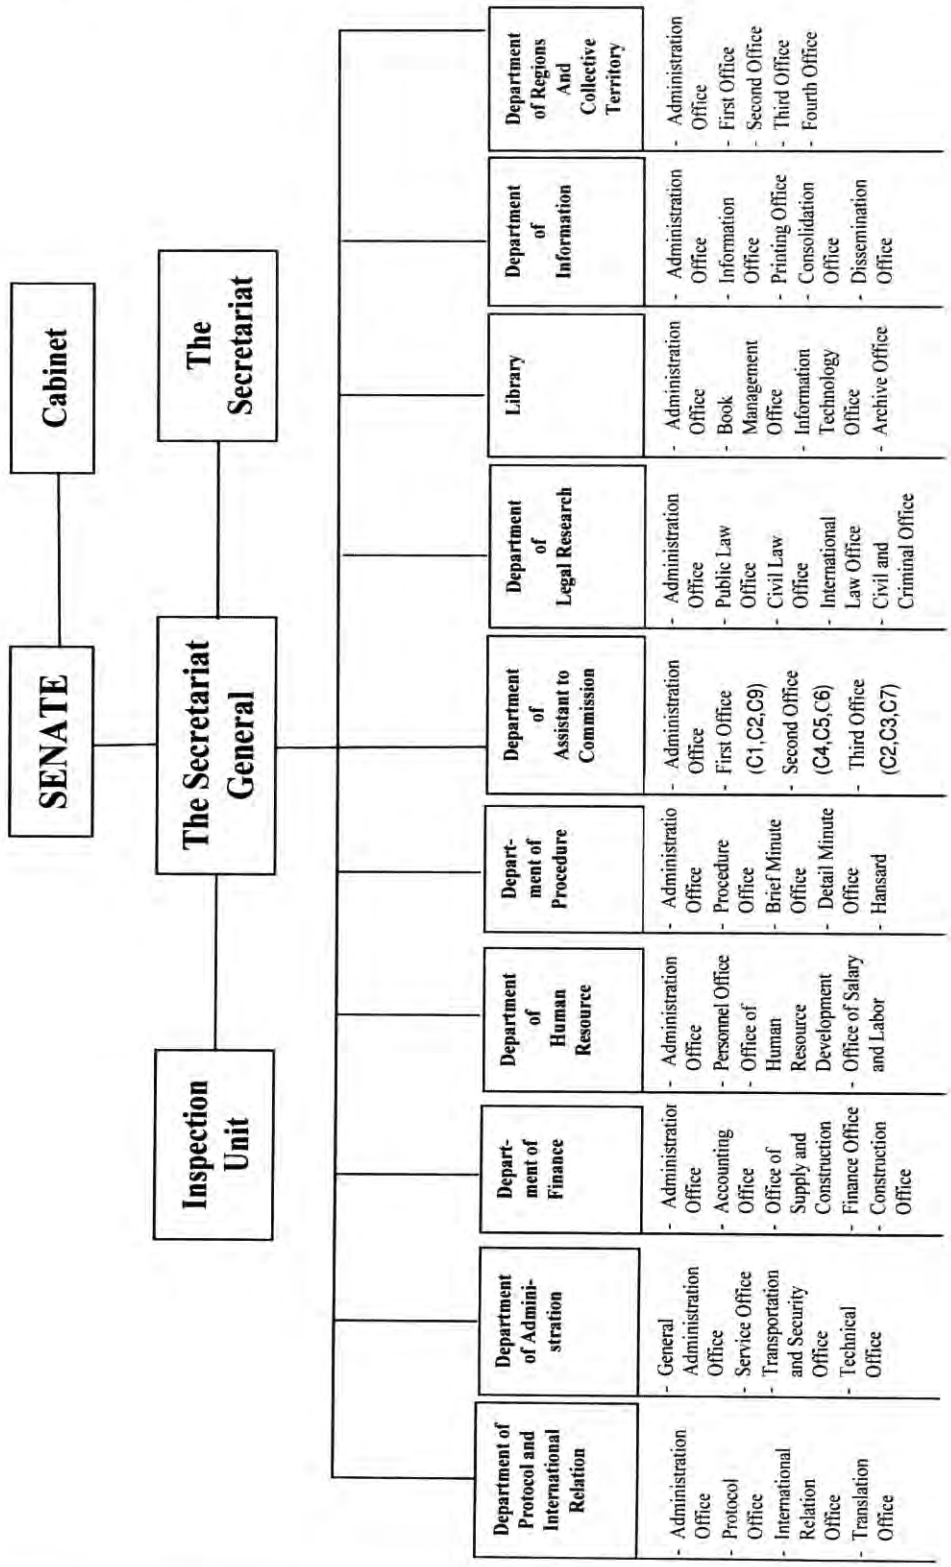

The Secretariat General of the Senate was established in accordance to the Internal Regulation of the Senate, Chapter 4, Article 15, states "Senate shall have a Secretariat General in charge of taking minutes of the Senate, Standing Committee and other Specialized Commissions..."

3-2-Structure of the Secretariat General of the Senate

A-From 1999 to 2005, the Secretariat General had 7 Units under its supervision 1) Inspection Unit, 2) Legal Council, 3) Department of Administration, 4) Department of Finance, 5) Department of Procedures, 6) Technical Office and 7) Protocol Office.

B-In 2005, structure of the Secretariat General was expanded. It had 12 Units under its supervision: 1) Secretariat, 2) Inspection Unit, 3) Department of Legal Research, 4) Department of Administration, 5) Department of Finance, 6) Department of Procedures, 7) Department of Assistance to specialized Commissions, 8) Department of Human Resource, 9) Department of Protocol and International Relations, 10) Department of Information, 11) Department of Regions and Collective Territory and 12) Library.

The reform of its structure (1999-2005) in 2005 clearly reflects daily progress of the Secretariat General in providing broader, quality and effective services to the Senate so as to enable it to perform its roles and duties as the Representation of people with more effectiveness.

The roles and duties of each unit have been arranged in respond to the future requirements of the Senate.

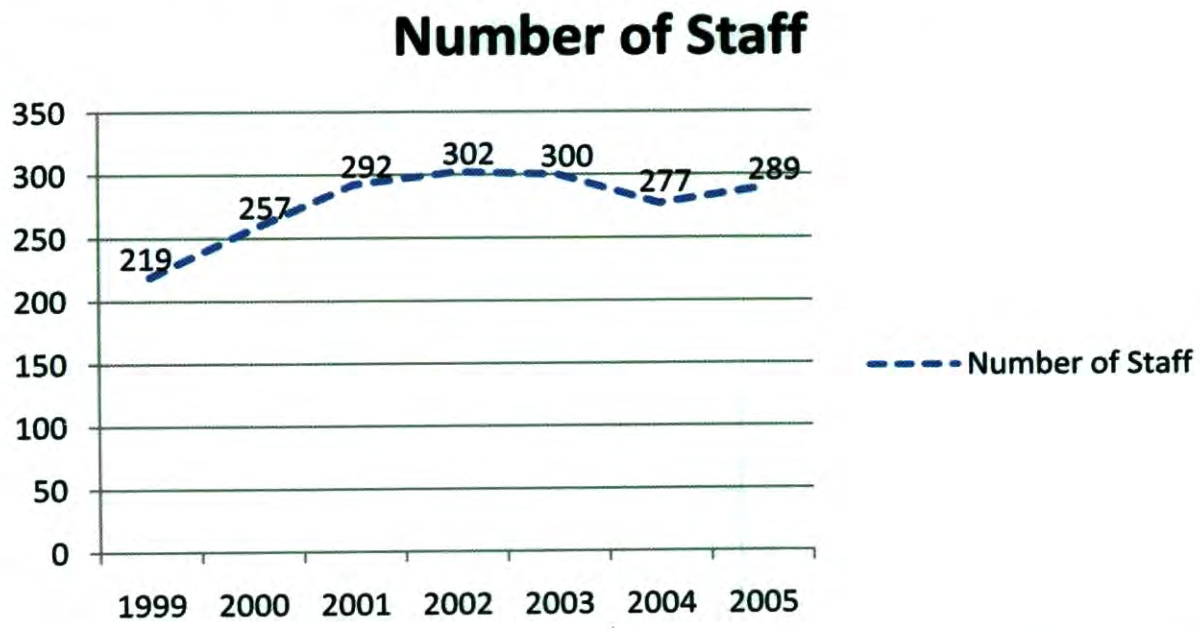

3-3-Staff Administration

Since its establishment in 1999, the management based only on the internal regulation of the Senate and focused mainly on work discipline. In this situation, the Secretariat General faced a lot of problem relating to the neutrality, unclear framework, rights, benefits and obligation of each staff. Not until 2003 that these problems were addressed step by step with the adoption of law on Statute of Legislative Staff. Since then staffs were integrated into one framework and the new remuneration system were better improved.

At the same time, the Secretariat General also prepared eight human resource management policies about the recruitment of full time staffs, contracted staffs and interns, job description, human resource trainings and development, encouragement and motivation of woman affairs, leadership appointment and retirement and disable staff policy. These policies had been implemented altogether in late 2005 along with the new Internal Regulation of the Secretariat General.

3-4-Five-Year Strategic Plans

With the supports from cooperation partners, the Five-Year Strategic Plans which consist of five goals had been made and implemented since 2003. The five goals focus mainly on strengthening of capacity through vocational training, and skill training for staff, policies, work procedures, information, research and documentation.

Based on the strategic plan, each department prepared and implemented their own strategic plan with vision, goals and actions according to their roles and duties respectively.

The First Legislature was a very early stage for the Senate. In this stage, the Secretariat General had been through many challenges, but eventually it managed to attain remarkable achievements by the end of the legislature. These notable accomplishments include skill training of staff, structural reforms, roles and duties of the Secretariat General, human resource development policies, work procedures, infrastructural renovation and equipped institutional facility. Likewise, the international cooperation also received substantial success. These accomplishments are solid base for the Senate to develop itself in order to realize the vision and goals of its Five-Year Strategic Plan.

II-Achievements of the Senate in the Second Legislature (2006-2012)

In this Legislature, the Senate had three important functions, representation, legislation and oversight, whereas the 9 Specialized Commissions have the functions of legislation, oversight and information.

4-Information Function

The Senate sent commission delegations and Senators to institutions, ministries, departments, public enterprises, development regions, provinces, capital city and municipalities to conduct fact finding missions where necessary, so as to dispatch crucial information about human rights, economic, social, cultural, environmental situation and the needs of the localities back to the Senate.

5-Public and International Relation Affairs

In international cooperation and relations, the Senate has actively engaged in international obligation and strengthened cooperation with various parliaments in the region and beyond the region as well as with other parliamentary organizations and development partners aims to develop and transform itself into a modern and democratic parliament so as to integrate itself into the region and the world. The Senate regularly attended annual General Assemblies, regional workshops and various meetings of IPU, AIPA, APF, APPF, ICT Global Parliament, AFPPD, ASGP framework. The Senate also shared its recommendations on some resolutions of the above meetings in order to help solve regional and global issues. On top of that, the Senate of the Second Legislature even took one step ahead by carrying out self evaluation of its ten year performance based on the evaluation standard set up by the IPU and shared its experiences and findings on international arena through various presentations made during ASGP and meetings, which received overwhelming support. The Senate also took part in various decision makings that allowed for Cambodia to become a member of international treaties, conventions and protocols and adopted laws with an aim to strengthen the implementation of treaties and convention ratified by the institution. In addition, the Senate also encouraged and followed up to the implementation of the Brussels Program of Actions (BPoA) created to reduce poverty of Least Developed Countries (LDCs) through workshops and oversight actions of the government.

Within the framework of cooperation between Parliaments, the Senate Leaders, Senators and Leaders of the Secretariat General paid official and study visits to various friendly Parliaments with an aim to strengthen international cooperation, develop parliamentary capacity and gather support assistance for institutional development. In this Second Legislature, the Leaders of the Senate and the Secretariat General paid visits to some countries such as China, Laos PDR, Vietnam, France, Australia, Japan, Canada, Korea, Russia, Singapore, Indonesia, Malaysia and Panama. At the same time, the Senate also had opportunities to welcome delegations of other friendly parliament, particularly high parliamentary delegations such as the Chairman and Vice Chairman of the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPCC), President of the Senate of Australia, Vice President of the Senate of France, Vice President of the House of the Regional Representatives of Indonesia, Secretary General of Swedish Parliament, Chair of Commission on Foreign Affairs of the Senate of Thailand and Australian Senators etc. Based on the above visits and cooperation, the Senate has received continuous support from the Governments and Parliaments of friendly countries aimed at institutional development physical infrastructure, equipment and human resource with a total amount of 10,205,843 USD such as:

-Chinese Government renovated 3 office buildings with 72 rooms, Senate Plenary Session Hall, Cabinet office of the Senate President, built 3 office buildings with 3 floors each and also donated 97 air conditioners, 97 computers and other office equipments with a total amount of 9,290,000 USD.

-Japanese Government donated 2 office buildings with 3 floors each, office equipments and studio with a total amount of 700,343 USD.

-French Senate and Government and AFP donated office materials with a total amount of 31,900 USD.

-Vietnamese National Assembly and Government donated office materials and carpets with a total amount of 155,000 USD.

-Republic of Korea donated 180 computers with a total amount of 28,600 USD.

As the support for human resource development, Senate's officials were also sent to train at foreign parliaments in some countries such as Canada, Australia, Russia, France and also given post graduate scholarships and visits to Australia, France, Canada, Italy, New Zealand, Japan, Sweden, the Philippines, India, China, Thailand, Singapore, Cuba, Laos PDR, Indonesia and Vietnam. Additionally, experts from friendly countries also came to train Senate's Officials on some important fields such as commission affairs, research skills, legal, and economic analysis, information technology, planning, public relation project preparation, communication and human resource management.

Besides strengthening cooperation between parliaments and parliamentary organizations, the Senate also strengthened its cooperation with development partners such as United Nation Development Program (UNDP), Cambodia-Canada Legislative Support Project (CCLSP), Canada International Development Agency (CIDA), Konrad Adenauer Stiftung (KAS), Association of Francophone Parliaments (AFP), Asia Foundation, SES, and CIM. Through this cooperation, the Senate received supports from the above mentioned partners for the capacity building of Senators and staff of the Secretariat General for them to be able to provide good services to the Senators and for improving of the effective implementation of the three main functions of the Senate; Legislation, Representation and Oversight. The contribution of development partners in strengthening and promoting capacity of the Senate had been done through organizing of workshops, forums, round table discussions, trainings, field trips and other study missions abroad that focused on key topics relating to law making, giving recommendation on legal text, Millennium Development Goals (MDGs), environment, economy, social affairs, gender, decentralization and de-concentration. The total activities during the Second Legislature are 688 times. In addition, the UNDP also conducted a number of visits to the Senate by students through its legislative support program in order to inform public of the roles of the legislative institutions and also to link them with these institutions more closely.

Nonetheless, by the end of this second legislature, some of development partners such as CCLSP and UNDP ended their projects with the Senate. This termination is considered to be a threat to the Senate's institutional development process. Therefore, in order to respond to this change, the Senate decided to establish an institution known as the Parliamentary Institution of Cambodia (PIC) as a mechanism to strengthen capacity of Cambodian parliament. More importantly, through PIC, Cambodian parliament will be able to share its experiences with parliaments of other countries in regional and global framework.

Thus, the above mentioned accomplishments reflect the scope of cooperation and international relations of the Senate being strengthened and broadened incessantly from one legislature to the next and the Senate also received significant supports and recognition from the international arenas. These achievements also clearly show the progress of the Senate in terms of infrastructure and human resource development that were almost entirely depend on international and development partners' assistance. However, the Cambodian Senate even prepared a specific strategy to respond to the retreat of development partners in order to ensure its smooth transformation into modern democratic parliament and integration into the region and the globe.

(Please refer to annex on the outcomes of international cooperation of the Second Legislature of the Senate).

6-Achievements of the Secretariat General of the Senate

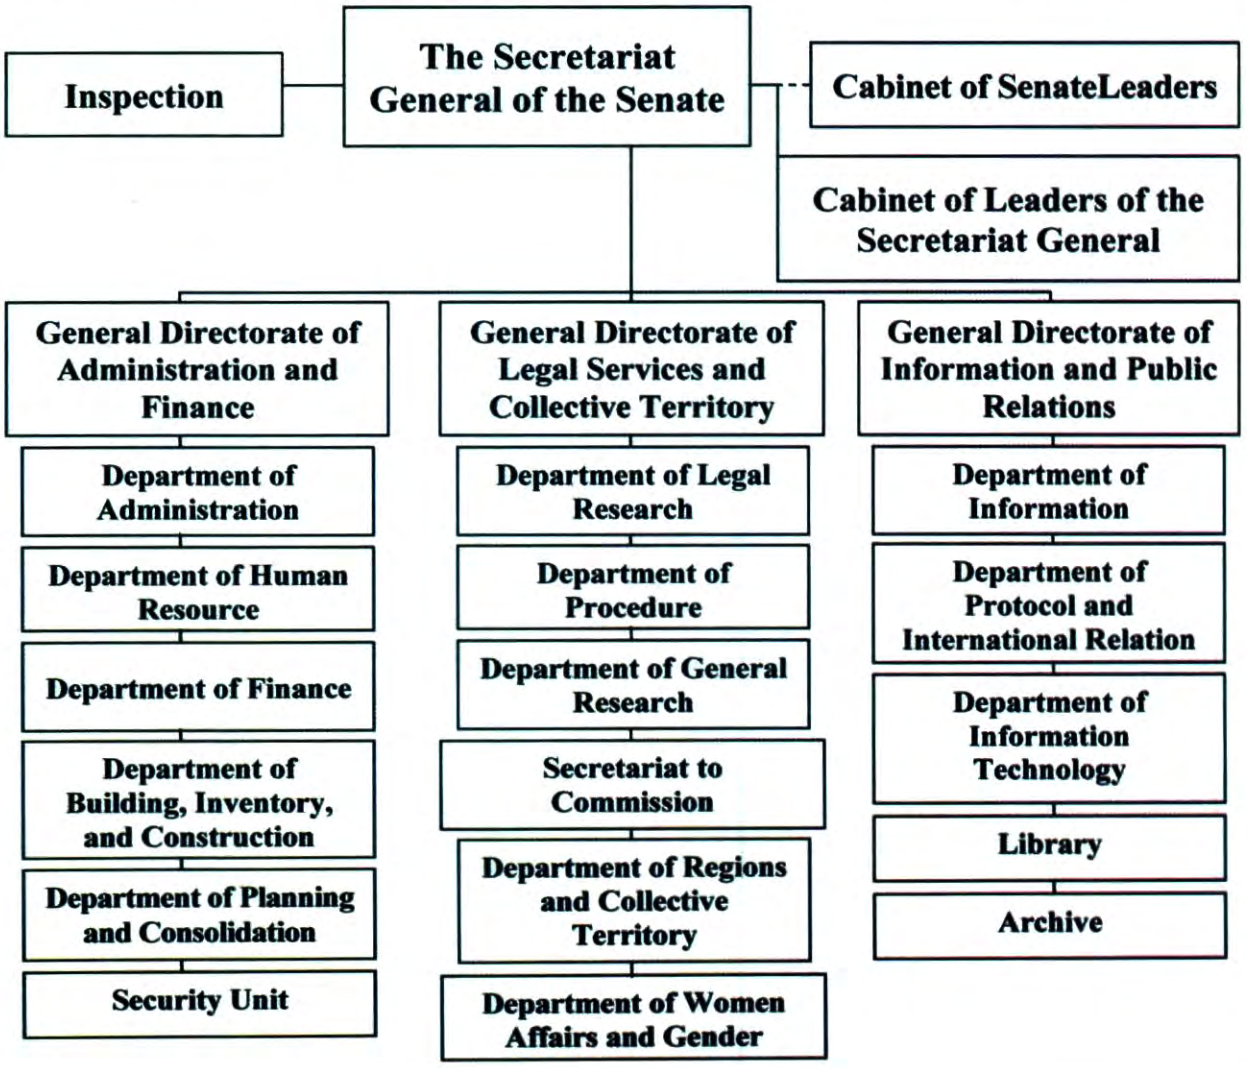

The Secretariat General of the Senate plays an important role as the direct subordinate to the Senate that handles administrative, financial, security affairs and other services of the Senate including internal and external relations.

A-Administrative Principles of the Secretariat General

The Secretariat General of the Senate operates on democratic mechanism which is open and transparent. Generally, the preparation of standard formalities and governance policies are delegated to committees whose membership is composed of highly experienced officials coming from various subordinate departments.

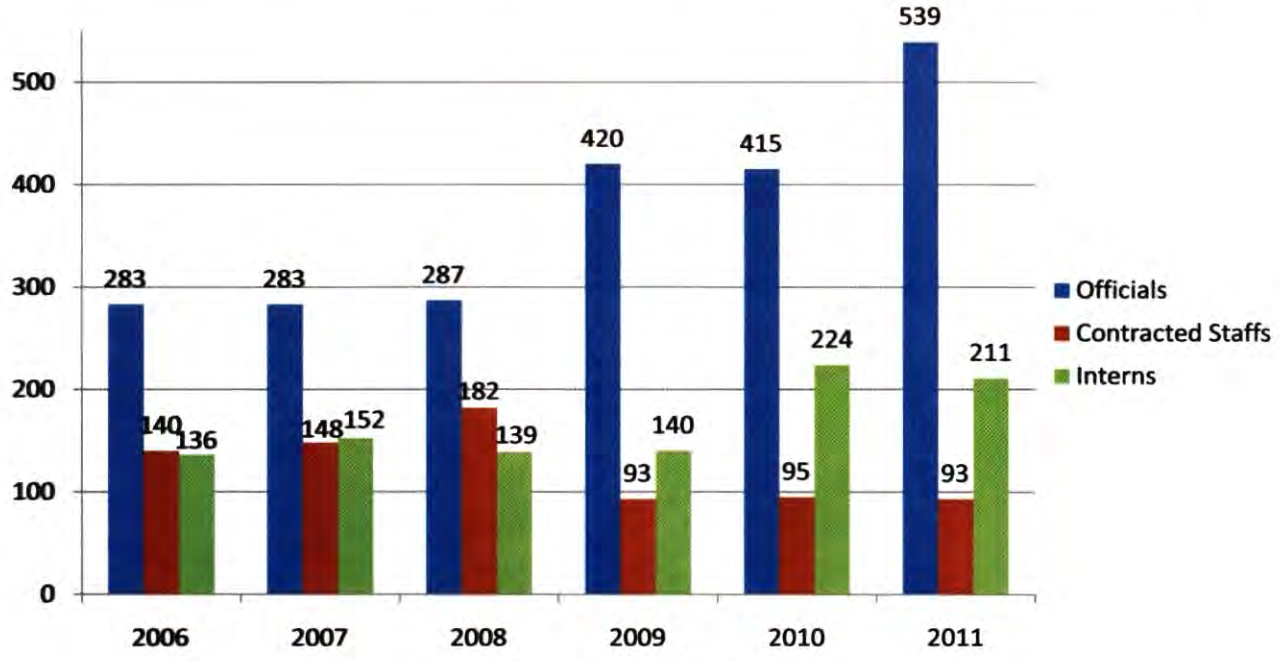

In accordance with the Law on Statute of Legislative Staff, some urgent provisions were composed to serve the purpose of leadership and human resource management and also to protect the interest of officials as well as to ensure long term sustainable development of the institution.

In 2010, the Secretariat General restructured its management structure as follow:

The Secretariat General of the Senate has a total staff consists of full time officials, contracted staffs and interns.

In the process of its institutional development, the Secretariat General produced various basic documents as follow:

-Strategic Plan (2003-2008) and (2009-2013) with 5 strategic goals:

- Management and Human Resource Development
- Structure, policies and management procedures
- Information Technology System

7- Challenges

In the Second Legislature, the Senate faced with five major challenges:
1-The process of Decentralization/De-concentration and reform such as rule of law development and national development is being carried out leading to new changes and caused a new need and proposals.

2-For the Specialized Commissions and Senators, there will be capacity, quality, effectiveness, process, facility, and workplaces for performing their 3 functions in respond to the national need, entire Commune/Sangkat Councils and the public.

3-The participation in international affairs (regional and international framework) is still limited due to insufficient resources and facility.

4-For the Secretariat General, there will be challenge on capacity to provide good, smooth, comprehensive, qualified, effective, quick and reliable multiple services for leaders of the Standing Committee, Specialized Commissions and Senators including provision of support services in researches and information are not strong enough.

5-For long-term in the future, we will constantly overcome basic conflicts:
A/ between capacity and need
B/ between resources, facility, workplaces, IT System and need
C/ between commitment and requirement

8. Visions

A. Vision of the Senate

Senate shall have potential mechanism with its great endeavor to create information center, budgeting and monitoring center, economic, social, cultural, environmental, modern library and regional center and Parliamentary Institution of Cambodia.

The strengthening capacity of Cambodian Senate is one of important contributions for the nation to successfully development of democracy, rule of law, social economic development; accomplish its integration into regional and international framework. To achieve these visions:

- Senate shall process within the standard of parliamentary democracy and be good partner with parliamentary democracy in the region and international.

- Senate shall accomplish major duties, representation of Commune/Sangkat Councils throughout the country, and be a dynamic force to ensure success of Decentralization/De-concentration implementation of the State and development of Commune/Sangkat in all sectors.

- Senators shall accomplish their 3 functions, legislation, representation and oversight.

- Specialized commissions shall accomplish their legislative, oversight and informative function as a real mini Senate.

B. Vision of the Secretariat General of the Senate

- Secretariat General shall have competency to provide full services in all sectors and specialty to the 9 Specialized Commissions and Senators through administrative system of modern parliament equipped with modern information technology system.

- Officials who are working in the Secretariat General of the Senate shall have knowledge, sufficient specialty and high capacity of language that enable to provide necessary services with quality and efficiency.

9. Conclusion

In the Second Legislature, the Senate had a great contribution and actively participated in national development in all sectors.

Based on the achievements of the First Legislature, the Senate of the Second Legislature, was created by the election and having a clear identity to fulfill its functions as a legislative body with better maturity, experiences, concrete legislative foundation and conditions of resource, facility, technology, expertise and specialty, accomplished new achievements as well as promote the implementation of Decentralization/De-concentration in a constant progress.

Nowadays, the Senate has been given new image, reputation, recognition and proper position, in turning from one of the Senates only receiving assistance from different sources to become an institution to share and offer lesson-learnt and experiences to other parliamentary organizations as a model. The integration in the regional and international organizations is to provide opportunity to the Senate contribute to accomplish key international obligations stipulated in the millennium development goals. In the country, the Senate attained more prestige or status in legislative body by building partnership with the National Assembly in completion of national concerns through congress of the Senate and National Assembly.

The performance assessment of the Senate in the last 10 years, it is not only a good experience for sharing within the parliamentary organizations, but the recommendations of the assessments are also potential dynamic forces to promote the Senate to be new developed rapidly as more than expected and attract more cooperation and assistance from new development partners in addition to the existing partners.

The major achievements in the Second Legislature are the endeavor and ideal intelligent of leaderships, responsibility of Senators and officials in all ranks, as well as outcome of the good inclusive cooperation and actual achievement with friendly parliaments and national and international development partners.

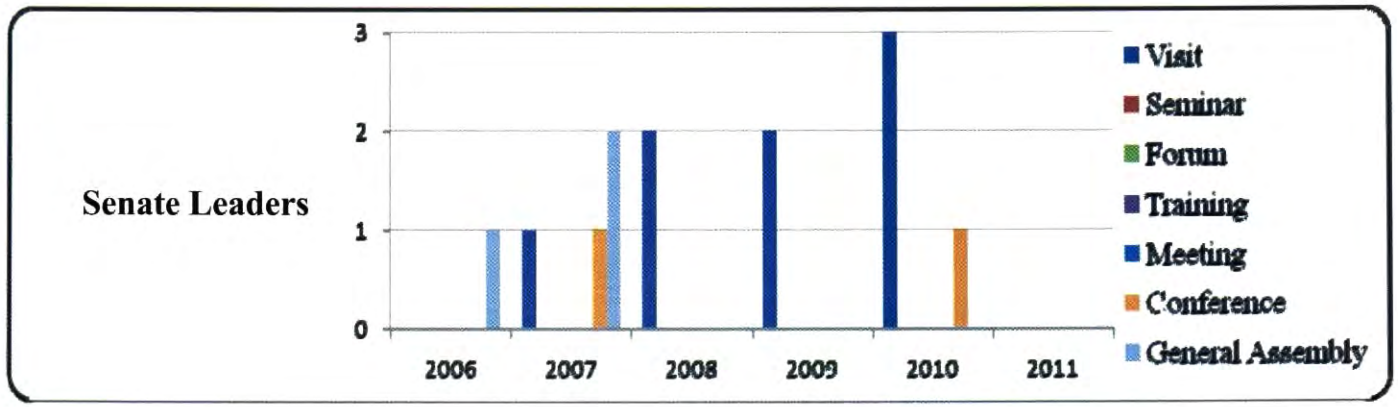

These achievements indicate the Cambodian Senate has built and strengthened a solid foundation in term of legislation, processes, basic technology, specialty, expertise, infrastructures and support services with better quality, specialty and profession as well as leading to accomplish a number of required conditions of parliamentary democracy in the world.

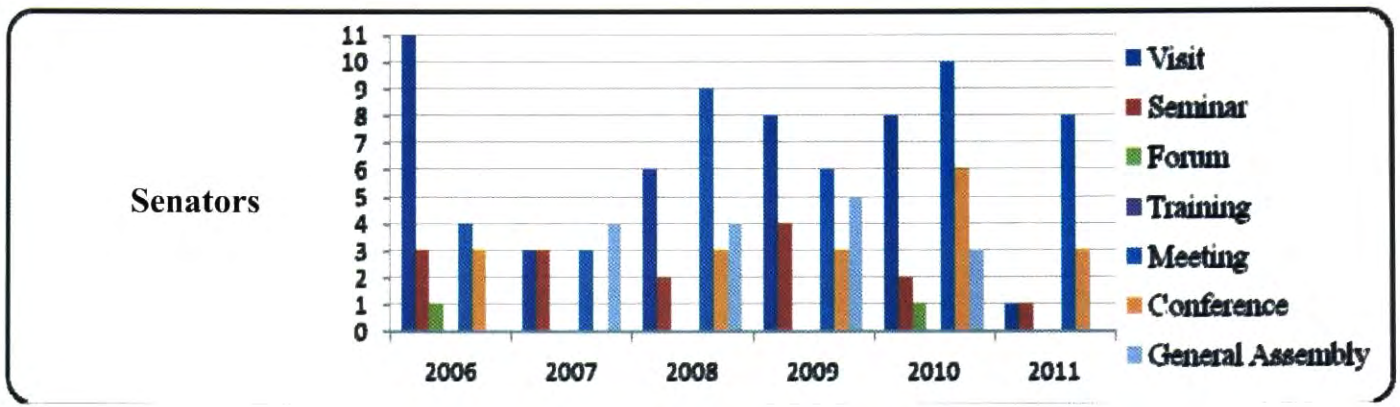

Based on achievements of the Second Legislature, the Senate has confidence that the Third Legislature will be smoothly commenced and function forward in a more totally comprehensive manner, especially, in accomplishment of the 3 functions in align with the 10-Year Strategic Framework and Action Plan (2008-2018) for Capacity Strengthening of the Senate to deserve to be the Legislative Organization of the nation.
